Job Description
Small Animal Emergency Veterinarian, 12-month renewable position within the James L Voss Veterinary Teaching Hospital.

Qualifications
- DVM or equivalent veterinary professional degree.
- Completion of a rotating internship and/or specialty internship in Emergency and Critical Care Medicine, or a minimum of 2 years experience in small animal emergency/critical care.
- Experience instructing veterinary students, interns or technicians in Emergency and Critical Care Medicine.

Specific Responsibilities

Teaching
- Clinical: Receive and primarily manage incoming cases through the Urgent Care and Emergency Department. Provide active instruction to Professional Veterinary Medical Students (PVM) and interns in Urgent Care/Emergency and Critical Care Services. These units provide the Colorado State University Veterinary Teaching Hospital with a 24-hour a day, 7-day a week, 365 day per year emergency room and intensive care unit.
- Didactic: Provide lecture and laboratory instruction in small animal critical care/emergency medicine to veterinary students and interns, mostly within the clinical setting.

Service and Outreach
- Clinical Service: Provide up to 48 weeks (or equivalent) per year of direct clinical activity in the Urgent Care/Emergency Service. Clinical activity will require scheduling of this individual during daytime, afterhours, overnight and weekend hours.
- Outreach: Participate in local professional continuing education for veterinarians, veterinary technicians and the general public.
- Administrative: Provide input for grading students who rotate through the Urgent Care/Emergency service.

Salary will be commensurate with the qualifications of the applicant. Interested individuals should submit a curriculum vita, letter of intent, and the names email addresses, and postal addresses of three individuals who can act as references to the following link: http://jobs.colostate.edu/postings/15285
Additional information is available via email at ClinSciHR@colostate.edu
Applications will be accepted until the position is filled but evaluation will begin June 12, 2015.

CSU is an EO/EA/AA employer and conducts background checks on all final candidates