

Educational Course for Horse Owners and Breeders

Equine Reproductive Management: Stallion, Mare & Newborn Foal

DATE: January 8-12, 2018

FEE: $1,450 if registered by 12/1/17

$1,500 if registered after 12/1/17

COURSE IS LIMITED TO 40 PARTICIPANTS

A 5-day course includes 20 hours of classroom instruction covering anatomy and physiology of the stallion and mare; semen collection/evaluation; artificial insemination, hormone therapy; breeding management; evaluation of the infertile mare; pregnancy diagnosis; twin management; prediction of foaling; dystocia management; and foal care. In addition, 15 hours of hands-on laboratory training are provided on semen collection/evaluation; artificial insemination; cooled semen; mare reproductive evaluation; techniques for prediction of foaling; on-farm obstetrical procedures; placental evaluation; colostrum quality; foal IgG testing; and foal resuscitation. A semester of education in just five days.

The continuing education programs for horse owners provided by Colorado State University are renowned for being practical and thorough with an innovative hands-on approach.

Courses held at the Equine Reproduction Laboratory

Colorado State University, 3101 Rampart Rd., Fort Collins, CO 80521

